

2024 Internal Audit Report (Hearings - Limited Scope) – Note on Confidential Findings: This report is not published because it contains information about the agency’s routine efforts to protect against the disclosure of sensitive and confidential data, which if revealed, could present risks to the safety, security, and disclosure of legally-protected private and confidential information. The information is also excepted from the requirements of the Public Information Act pursuant to Texas Government Code, Section 552.139.